Failure to do so will not enable you to partake in any of the events at the discounted rates until payment is received.

Included with your membership are the Annual Kick-off Event in fall and Annual Year-End Celebration in late spring, the privilege of participating in the various events, field trips and/or classes organized by members of the association (of which all families are expected to volunteer for at least one responsibility each year) and the opportunity to network with other homeschooling families through the provision of a member directory (optional listing, as indicated below).
